Terms and Conditions

- a) This Bill is payable by Electronic transfer/ DD/ Cheque in favor of Equifax Credit Information Services Private Limited. Please make payment within due date
- b) Information of payment to be sent to Receivables.in@equifax.com along with Invoice no, TDS amount and UTR details
- c) We have filed the return of income for the relevant two assessment years as referred in section 206AB(3) of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (#the Act#) Hence, the provisions of section 206AB of the Act would not be applicable. For any payment due to us during the financial year, TDS to be deducted as per the normal TDS provisions of the Act without applying the provisions of section 206AB.
The Central Board of Direct Taxes has issued a new functionality "Compliance Check for Sections 206AB & 206CCA" to ease the compliance burden. This functionality is already functioning through reporting portal of the Income-tax Department. The tax deductor/collector can feed the single PAN (AACCE0474F) of the deductee/ collected and can get a response from the functionality if such deductee/collected is a specified person.
- d) i) The parties acknowledge that invoices are to be submitted electronically through the Government of India's e-invoicing system ("GST Portal") by Equifax in accordance with the terms stated herein and any delay due to such submission shall not affect the payment terms.
ii) Customer shall be responsible for providing complete and accurate billing and contact information to Equifax and shall notify Equifax of any changes to such information.
iii) Customer shall provide to Equifax the following information in writing to facilitate electronic invoicing:
Customer's full registered company/legal entity name, registered office address, goods and services tax identification number and any other relevant information required under applicable law.
iv) In any event, the parties shall cooperate diligently to enable the electronic invoicing process.
v) Any error or delay in the issuance of an electronic invoice due to:
(a) the provisioning by Customer of incorrect or insufficient invoicing information impacting or preventing Equifax from successfully submitting the electronic invoice to the GST Portal; or
(b) the GST Portal and/or any other government authority (or their designated agent/agency) not being able to duly and effectively process such invoice; or
(c) any event requiring Equifax to issue an invoice again, shall not result in an extension of the payment terms set out in contract / order Form, and such term shall still be calculated from the date of the original invoice.
(d) Customer acknowledges and agrees that: (i) related invoices will be issued to the GSTIN and the Bill To Address as stated in the Contract/Order Form herein; and (ii) in circumstances where the GSTIN is invalid, inactive, blocked or otherwise unfound or unavailable, Equifax reserves the right to not report such GSTIN in the invoice and report the same as a B2C (i.e, GST unregistered) invoice.
vi) After receiving invoices, if the customer is liable to withhold tax at source (TDS), as per the Indian tax laws and regulations, please share your Tax Deduction Account No. (TAN) as per the Income Tax Act. The TDS certificate should be issued in favour of Equifax Credit Information Services Private Limited, PAN: AACCE0474F, and to be emailed to Receivables.in@equifax.com
